

What should I already know?

- We go to River View Primary School.
- We live in Salford.

What will I know by the end of the unit?

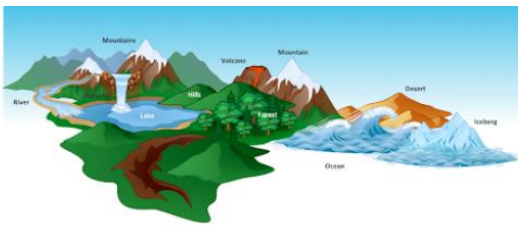

What are human features of Geography?

- Salford is an urban area.
- It has lots of man made (human built) features.
- These include: houses, shops, buildings, farms and cities.
- Salford precinct has many human features.

What are physical features of Geography?

- Salford also has green spaces that are full of physical features.
- Physical features include: trees, cliffs, beaches, mountains and rivers.
- Peel Park has many physical features.

How can I describe where something is?

- We can use positional language to describe the location of something.
- under, above, over, through, around, up, down, north, east, south, west

Where is River View?

- River View is in Salford, which is in Greater Manchester.
- Greater Manchester is part of England.
- We can show this on a map.

Vocabulary

compass	a tool which points north and is used to tell direction
east	a compass point
green space	an area with lots of grass, trees and plants
human feature	man made parts of the environment
map	a representation of land or sea, showing its human and physical features
north	a compass point
physical feature	natural parts of the environment position	where something is road	cars travel along a road to get from one place to another
River View Primary	a school in Lower Broughton
Salford	a city in Greater Manchester
south	a compass point
urban	an area with lots of buildings
west	a compass point

Salford is in Greater Manchester.